Disciplinary Procedure

The Purpose of the Procedure

Parkside House School requires good standards of discipline from its employees, together with good standards of work. The purpose of the disciplinary procedure is to ensure that any concerns over employees conduct or performance are handled in a fair, consistent and timely manner with the intention of bringing about an improvement and to protect the proper operation of the School and the health and safety of all who work within it.

All cases of disciplinary action under this procedure will be recorded and placed in the employee's record. A copy of the disciplinary record concerning an employee will be supplied to that employee at their request.

Employees have the right to be accompanied by their Union Representative or work colleague. It is the responsibility of the employee to arrange their own representation.

Stages within the Disciplinary Procedure

Investigation

No action will be taken before a proper investigation has been undertaken by the School into the matter of concern.

If appropriate an employee may be suspended while the investigation takes place.

During the period of suspension, the employee will not be entitled to access any of the school premises, except with prior request to the Head of Education and access may be subject to such conditions the school may impose

You may be accompanied by your trade union representative or a work colleague.

No disciplinary penalty will be imposed without a disciplinary hearing, but a hearing may proceed in your absence if you fail to attend.
