SCHOOL UNIFORM POLICY

Parkside House School

Parkside House School Uniform.

Parkside House School has a mandatory school uniform policy which requires all pupils to wear the correct uniform daily. The School feels the wearing of uniform has many benefits and the co-operation of parents and guardians is expected.

It has been proven that the wearing of school uniform is advantageous for the following reasons;

School community- The promotion of a positive school ethos and a sense of identity.

Encouragement of purposeful attitude to work and positive behaviour

Improved security as pupils are easily identified when out of school

A reduction in bullying and victimisation that can rise from peer pressure to adhere to certain fashion trends.

Raising young people's awareness of the requirement to dress appropriately for the world outside the school community.
